Leadership is... for everyone

- How does this equation sit with you?
 Leadership = Influence = Everyone
- 2. On Sunday Paul listed these things that can distort how we see ourselves:
 - Things that happen to us
 - Winning and losing
 - When your heart gets broken
 - When you make a wrong decision
 - Sometimes great success, you can start to put your trust in yourself and not God
 - Sometimes there are terrible and horrible things that happen to us Do any of them resonate with you? Are there any others? It definitely isn't an exhaustive list
- 3. Do you have a favourite passage from the Bible that speaks of who we are in God's eyes? What impact has it had in your life as you have 'wrestled with it'?
- 4. a) Paul showed this slide that lists a few of the things that God says about us in the Bible. As you think about these, or many of the other things that God says about us in the Bible, which one are you most comfortable with and which one do you find the hardest to accept?

Whole Dearly loved

Dreamt of Focus of His love Adopted
Fearfully & wonderfully made

Holy Child of God
Redeemed
Forgiven His workmanship
Heirs of God
Precious

- b) How easy do you find it not just knowing these truths but letting them sink into your heart and truly believe them so you can live by them? Do you have any helpful things that you do to help that happen?
- 5. If you were in the service on Sunday morning, what did you see when you closed your eyes and imagined you were face to face with Jesus? Was it positive or negative?
